Re: United States v. Paul J. Manafort, Jr. & Richard W. Gates III,
Crim. No. 17-201 (ABJ)

Dear Messrs. Downing & Wu:

Pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, enclosed please find the government's third discovery production in the above-referenced case. Enclosed with this letter are (1) a thumb drive, (2) a hard drive, and (3) for defendant Gates only, a CD. All media are protected by a password that will be sent to you under separate cover. This production, and all others, are covered by the Protective Order entered by the Court on November 15, 2017.

Contents of the Enclosed Thumb Drive

The enclosed thumb drive contains 19 numbered attachments, as set forth below.

- Search Warrant Applications and Related Materials

Enclosed are copies of several additional search warrants and search warrant affidavits detailed in the chart below. Redactions have been made to protect the identity of individuals who provided information and to protect the government's ongoing investigation.

Contents of the Enclosed CD (Produced to Gates only)

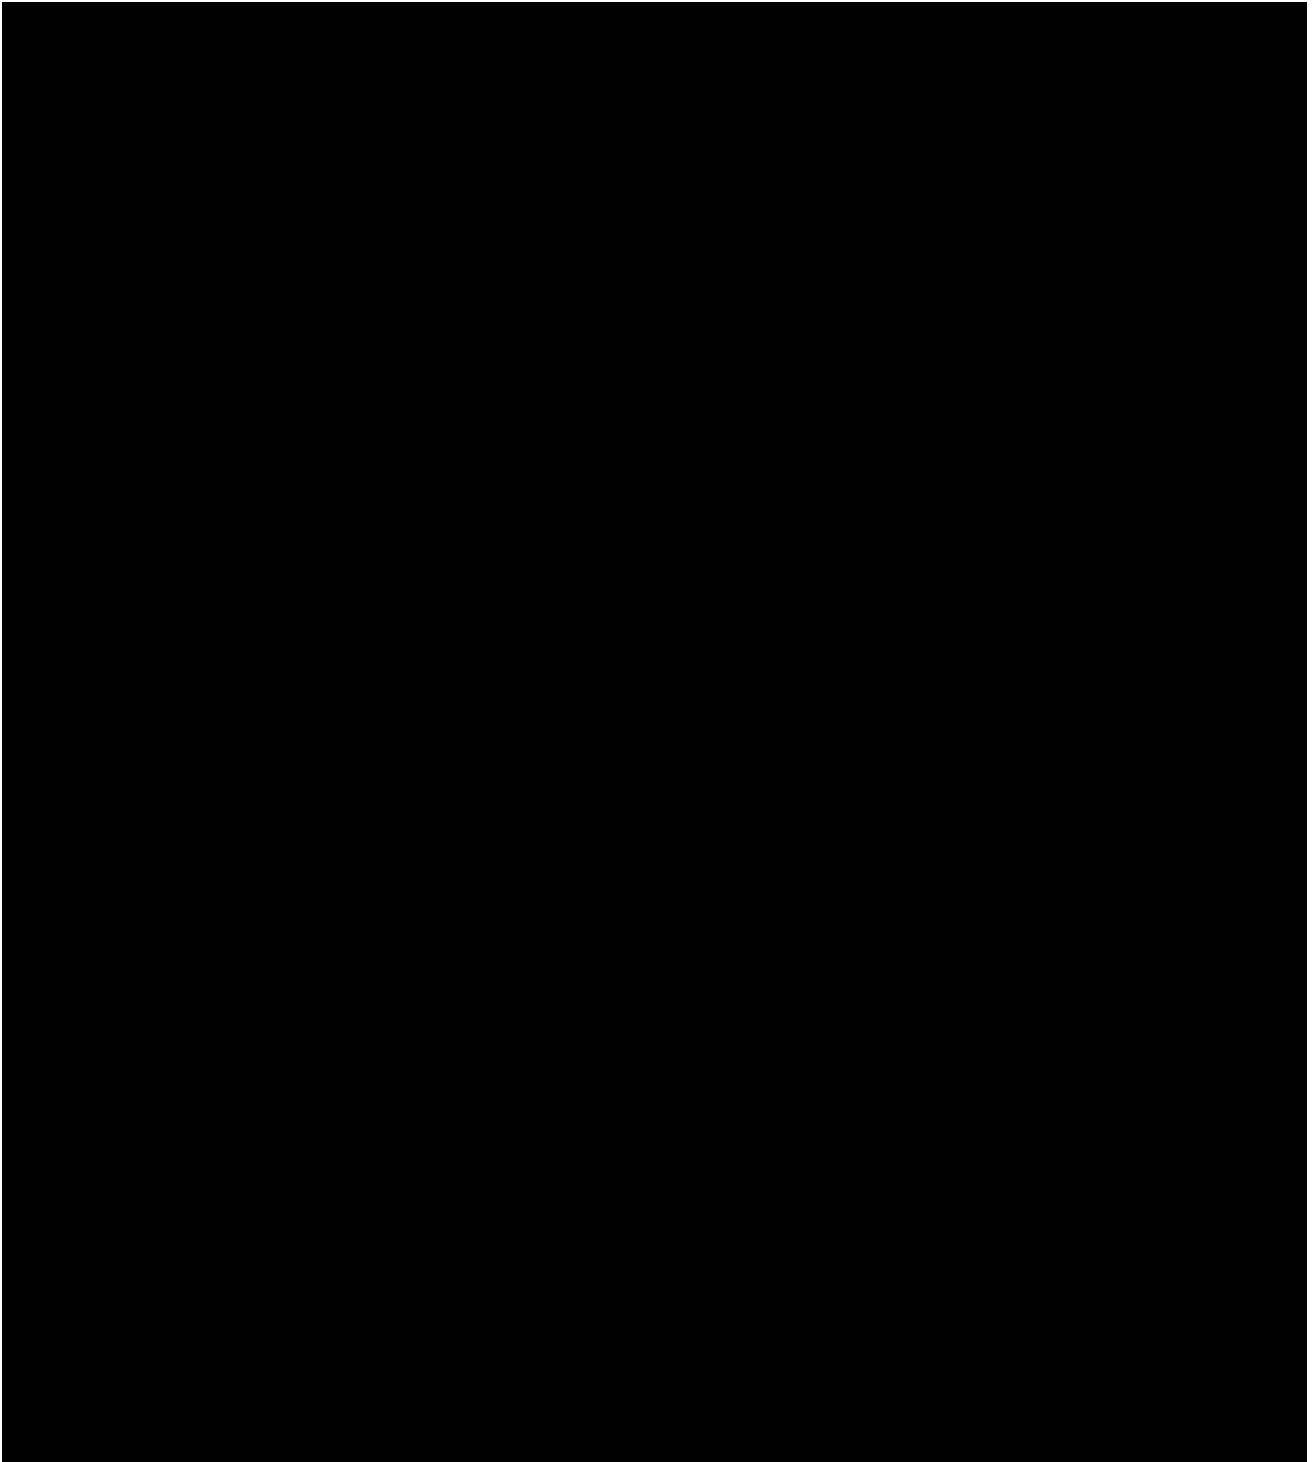

Also enclosed for the defendant Gates is a CD containing copies of materials found on nine devices seized (or imaged) during the search of the defendant Manafort's residence at [REDACTED]. The files are being produced as AD1 Image files, which can be viewed by using publicly available software that can be downloaded for free. If you have any questions or concerns about accessing these documents, please do not hesitate to contact us.

As previously noted, the government is not producing privileged material from these devices. Any questions about privileged material or issues should be directed to [REDACTED] at (202) [REDACTED], who we understand has already reached out to counsel for both defendants. Additionally, the government has endeavored to segregate out, from the material being produced, documents that are irrelevant to this matter. Given the volume of devices and electronic records, the government has relied on an automated process to remove certain categories of records that the government expects to be irrelevant. If you would like to discuss in further detail what this process entails, please let us know. Additionally, if you wish to examine any of the material removed from this (or any future) production through this automated process for identifying irrelevant material, please contact us to discuss and to arrange a mutually agreeable time.

These documents are not being reproduced to defendant Manafort, as he has already been provided with access to this material.

Contents of the Enclosed Hard Drive

Finally, the enclosed hard drive contains approximately 80,000 separate items, encompassing Bates numbers DOJSCO-401362401 – DOJSCO-401790274. These documents are in load-ready format for any e-discovery platform. An index for the hard drive is as follows:

As previously noted, you may examine the physical evidence discoverable under Rule 16, including original documents, by calling the undersigned to arrange a mutually convenient time.

If you have any questions about this production or any further discovery, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT S. MUELLER, III
